LIBBY HILL FOREST

Your adventure awaits!

Here's what you can do in the miles of trails in Libby Hill Forest:

Shake the cobwebs. Spot a hawk. Watch your child discover a frog. Notice a wildflower. Explore a cellar hole from the 19th century. Dodge a butterfly. Startle a deer. Listen to the music of a warbler. Inhale a breaths of clear, crisp air.

Think deep thoughts. Let your mind run riot. Sing at the top of your lungs. Rocket down a steep slope on your cross-country skis. Grin at a goofy dog.

Find out how easy it is to travel on snowshoes.

Challenge yourself on our mountain bike terrain. Meet fellow adventurers on the trail.

And you'll think of more.

Libby Hill is for hikers, cross-country skiers, mountain bikers, bird watchers, snowshoers, dreamers, dog walkers, and explorers of the past.

Over eleven miles of trails lead you to someplace you've never been. Its wildness and natural diversity make each trip a new journey of discovery.

A visit to Libby Hill Forest can last all day or an hour. There's no gift shop, and no bad food stand, but you can bring your own binoculars and a hunk of cheese and an apple, and you'll be well fed.

Located only 30 minutes from Portland, Lewiston, and Brunswick, it is easily accessible and one of Southern Maine's best kept secrets.

There's no charge to get in. If you'd like to make a donation to help us pay the cost of maintaining the trails see our donation post at the parking area or donate online libbyhill.org/donate.
